The Final Act of Living: Reflections of a Longtime Hospice Nurse

The author of Gone From My Sight, My Friend, I Care and A Time to Live, shares her insights and perceptions from years of working with people during the final act of living. Now her lectures and ideas have been put on paper. This book is written in a simple, direct yet gentle style as it explores the signs of approaching death from disease, the normal grieving process, living wills, Durable Power of Attorney and other end of life issues.

What others say about this ebook:

Review 1:

These are personal experiences from end of life care situations. Extremely poignant first person tellings. Well organized, simple language explanations of the process individuals, families and caregivers go through while caring for loved ones. Not complicated.

Review 2:

This book is great for preparing yourself or a loved one for the dying process. I'm looking forward to reading this book again in the future, hopefully without a loved one's death looming over me.

Review 3:

Very good pamphlet, not a book.

Review 4:

Loved. As a hospice nurse this gave me even more insight into my daily struggles and my daily accomplishments. Excellent read

Review 5:

Husband was thrilled with this book, shared with family
